

Welcome

WE NEED PRECINCT OFFICERS! Each precinct should have three precinct officers: Chair, Vice-Chair, and Secretary. All of these officers should be REAL officers, which means they will be willing to walk door-to-door when its campaign time. We don't need figureheads; we need good, hard-working Democrats that'll make a difference.

Please attend our monthly meeting on Tuesday, February 17, 2015, at 6:00 pm at the Great Plains Tech Center, 4500 SW Lee Blvd., Building 100, Room 118/Auditorium.

If you absolutely cannot attend the meeting, please come by our office at 610A SW Lee Blvd., between 11 am - 3 pm, M-F. I'll help you with helpful materials and guidance.

We also need office volunteers to make telephone calls, file, to data inputting, and generally assist your stressed out, poor, overwrought, whiny Chair. You'll be paid the same as the Chair---nothing.

At our meeting on Tuesday, February 17, 2015 we will discuss: progress of the nomination committee of the county party, plans for the spring picnic and the fall fundraiser, the upcoming precinct officer elections, county party elections and state party elections and state party convention.

If you'd like to be a delegate to the OK State Democratic Party Convention, let me know at the meeting. I'd appreciate that your request be in writing. (I doesn't have to be fancy; just a note to remind me.)

Present precinct leaders are already setting up precinct elections for their precincts.

Bill Pitts has set a meeting for Precinct 13 Democrats, to be held on Thursday, February 19, 2015, at 6:30 pm at the county party office at 610A SW Lee Blvd. Prct. 13 Democrats should attend and elect your precinct officers. Bill's phone number is: (580) 357-0520. He has caller I.D., so he'll return your calls if he's not a home when you call.

Other precinct chairs can choose to hold your precinct elections in your home, a church, our office, or other place of your choice. Results should be turned in to the office no later than March 12, 2015.
