LAWTON ELECTION, TUESDAY, AUGUST 11!..There is a proposition for Lawton voters to decide that you should pay attention to. The proposition, if approved, would extend the present sales tax until Dec. 31, 2025. The old CIP (capital improvement tax) would have expired in 3 years. The extended tax would provide funds for new and alternate water resources for the city, among other projects, such as sewer rehab, landfill expansion, reconstruction of certain city streets, the Nine Mile Creek Sewer Line and improvements to the bus system.

A pink, sample ballot with the full wording of the proposition is posted on the wall at our CCDP headquarters at 610A SW Lee Blvd., Lawton.

We need candidates to step forward and run for State Representative in OK House Districts 62 (TW Shannon's old district), 63 (now held by Jeff Coody), 64 (this seat is going to be vacant, as Ann Coody is terming out), and 65 (Joe Dorman's old seat). We have potential candidates in some of these Districts. Further, OK Senate District 31, is going to be vacant, as Don Barrington is terming out. There are various county offices that will also be up, so get involved and throw your hat in these races!
