WE TACKLE A DIFFICULT SUBJECT ON MONDAY, JULY 18, 2016!

We Democrats are known for tackling difficult subjects and trying to find solutions. This coming Monday, July 18, 2016, at 6:00 pm at the Great Plains Technology Center, 4500 SW Lee Blvd., Lawton, in Building 100, Room 118 (the auditorium), we going to discuss in some depth the Black Lives Matter/ Blue Lives Matter issues.

Bishop John Dunaway is the speaker to introduce the subject and go give his insights. We've invited Lawton Police Chief James Smith to also speak.*

I'm hoping that we can bring this discussion into the open so we can begin to address ways to heal the wounds and hurt that have been dealt the African-American community, especially young black men. At the same time, the police have a role in the healing process and must be involved in it, while we support those officers who do their job honestly, professionally and without racial bias and deal with those who have not met this standard.

Please attend this important meeting. As Democrats we need to live up to the solutions to these problems. The opposing party will do the yelling and hate-making. We need to do better than that.
